

ETOWAH VALLEY QUILT GUILD

October 16, 2007 Regular Meeting

The meeting was called to order by President Celeste Coover at 7:00 pm. The minutes were approved as published on our web page. The Treasurer's Report was read.

Programs – Remember November meeting will be held the 2nd Tuesday instead of the third because of Thanksgiving.

Membership – Guest for the evening were Rose Strong from Kennesaw and Nancy Crook from Cartersville.

Showcase – Helen Rudd shared her quilt with us this evening. Anne Marshal will be showcasing in November.

New Business – We were informed that Jean Lawson has a new online business. Let's support her in her endeavor!

The budget as presented on our web page was approved.

The officer's slate for 2008 was approved for voting at our November meeting. Anyone wanting to add nominees for any positions please let Bobbi Winner know before our meeting in November.

Sunshine – LaJune broke her ankle. On a happier note – Sandra Collins will be adopting one of her foster children – a baby girl.

Six members paid their dues for 2008 at tonight's meeting. Please print the membership form from our website to submit along with your dues. You need only fill in those things that have changed. If there are no changes, just fill in your name and submit the form with your check.

We had a 10 minute break and then our program on rulers was presented.

Meeting adjourned at 8:40 pm.

Submitted by Bobbi Winner, Secretary